

About the Author

David Esposito is a combat veteran, business executive, husband, father, and creator of character-building resources that help individuals, families, and organizations reach their full potential.

He has developed award-winning resources under the brand Character Creates Opportunity®, a character-development initiative designed for all ages. He is also the inventor of Abundant Harvest® and Face to Face®: award-winning conversation games that are being utilized in families, schools, counseling programs, and faith-based organizations worldwide. The games help families and educators open the door to more effective communication and encourage decision making based on principles such as honesty, loyalty, and commitment with the intent of reinforcing the law of the harvest, simply, you “reap what you sow.” Abundant Harvest and Face to Face help foster effective conversations on real-world issues and develop the critical life skill of face-to-face communication that is rapidly being replaced by today’s online chatter.

David’s character and leadership skills were cultivated at West Point and through leadership assignments in the US Army Infantry. As an airborne ranger infantry officer, David led a rifle platoon with the 101st Airborne Division through several combat operations in the Gulf War. He was recognized with a Bronze Star for combat operations in February 1991.

After launching his business career as a top sales representative, David quickly rose through the ranks of corporate America advancing to become the president of a $100-million-plus medical diagnostics company.

David and his wife Tracy founded and sponsor the Harvest Time Partners Foundation, a charitable organization that supports children and young adults in the pursuit of character-building opportunities worldwide. The Foundation supports a wide range of initiatives from college scholarships to community-service projects, as well as international efforts to reduce the suffering of children and young adults.

David provides support to individuals, families, and organizations on a variety of topics and subjects encompassing personal and executive development, team building, leadership training, and building a strong marriage and family.
